THINGS TO DO & PLACES TO SEE

San Giovanni Church/San Martino Cathedral/Museum

A 10€ combo ticket includes entry to all three. The church and cathedral date back to the 11th–12th centuries and are among Lucca's most iconic landmarks.

Aqueduct Trail

A scenic trail begins just outside Lucca's walls and follows a 19th-century aqueduct for about 2 miles toward the foothills near Vorno. The full route continues over 15 miles all the way to Pisa.

Lucca Ramparts

The Renaissance-era walls encircling Lucca stretch for 2.5 miles and feature a tree-lined path perfect for walking or cycling. Bike rentals are available at several shops near Piazza Santa Maria.

Pisa-Field of Miracles (Leaning tower)

Reach Pisa in 22 minutes by car, 45 minutes by train to Pisa San Rossore Station, or about 50 minutes by bus from Piazzale Giuseppe Verdi.

Pinocchio Park

Located in Collodi, about 12 miles (23 min) from Lucca, this whimsical park celebrates the hometown of Pinocchio author Carlo Lorenzini. It features a storybook-themed park, gardens, and a butterfly house.

Beaches

Viareggio is a vibrant seaside resort town featuring a lively promenade lined with restaurants and shops. At the southern end, near the end of Viale Europa, you'll find a free public beach, while other areas require renting beach chairs and umbrellas. Located about 30 minutes from Lucca by car, also accessible by train or bus.

Grotta del Vento

About 1.5 hour drive from Lucca, set in the Apuan Alps Park, these caves are known for their striking rock formations and underground chambers. Guided tours available.
